

Life after Cardiac Arrest; So far I seem to be immortal

A meeting for people living with cardiac conditions, cardiac arrest survivors, families and professionals involved with their care

10-11 Carlton House Terrace, London SW1Y 5AH

Saturday 18th November, 9.30am

£10 for individuals, £15 for couples and £20 for families (Maximum of 4)

Concessions and travel expenses considered upon application

(minimum age 16yrs)

Name.....

Address.....

Phone ..... Mobile phone.....

Email .....

Profession .....

Where I heard about the conference .....

Please tick as appropriate:-

I am living with a cardiac condition	<input type="checkbox"/>
--------------------------------------	--------------------------

I had a sudden cardiac arrest and now have a diagnosis	<input type="checkbox"/>
--	--------------------------

I had a sudden cardiac arrest but don't have a diagnosis	<input type="checkbox"/>
--	--------------------------

A family member had a cardiac arrest	<input type="checkbox"/>
--------------------------------------	--------------------------

I had a heart attack	<input type="checkbox"/>
----------------------	--------------------------

I have a pacemaker or ICD	<input type="checkbox"/>
---------------------------	--------------------------

I am a health professional	<input type="checkbox"/>
----------------------------	--------------------------

I am interested in speaking with people affected by cardiac arrest	<input type="checkbox"/>
--	--------------------------

Another reason I'd like to attend .....

I enclose a cheque to the value of £..... for the following people.....

I am registering the following people and will pay by BACS (email info@sadsuk.org for BACS details)

The conference closes at 5.00pm

Cheques to be made payable to SADS UK and sent with Registration Form to:
SADS UK, Suite 6, Churchill House, Horndon Park, West Horndon, Essex CM13 3XD
Registered Charity no. 1113681